PRESENT THE

1966

OWL'S NEST

JOSHUA, TEXAS

In an effort to present something unique and yet in keeping with the traditions of Joshua High School, the 1966 Owl's Nest Staff wishes to present to you, the readers and holders of the 1966 Owl's Nest, our personification of the Spirit of Joshua School. You will find this Spirit throughout the yearbook as he introduces each division.

He is our idea of high school youth complete with its humor, hopes and dreams. May he become as real and dear to you as he has to the Staff--this Spirit of Joshua.

IN MEMORY

With the untimely death of
S. W. MILLS, JR.
the Joshua School lost a friend and
the community lost a good citizen.
As a former member of the School Board, Mr. Mills gave unselfishly of his time for the advancement of education and the welfare of the children of the Joshua Independent School District.

SENIOR TRIP

There's excitement in the air as we get ready to leave.

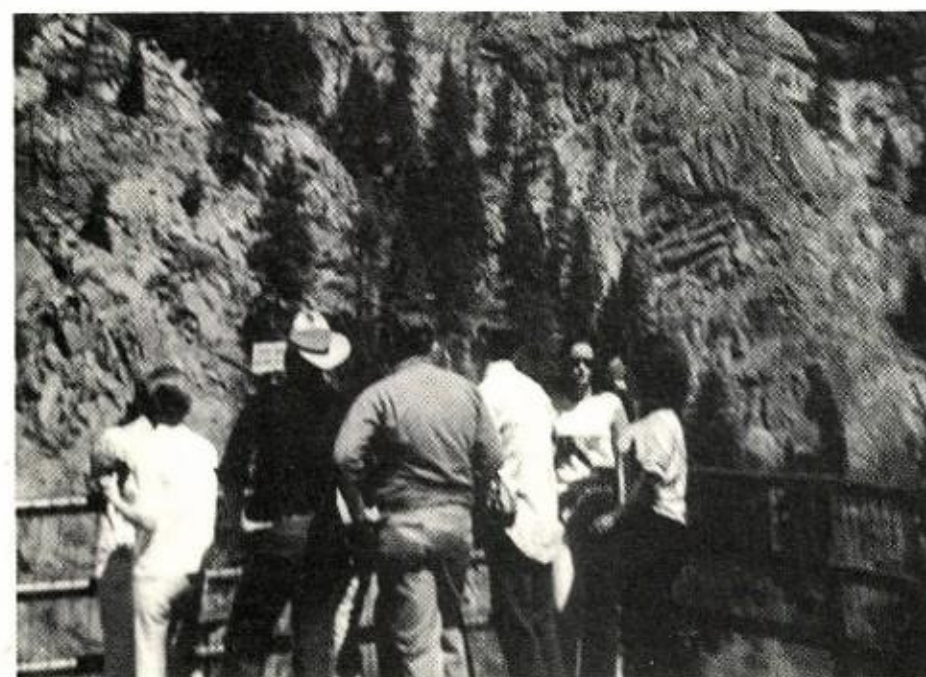

Unloading at the Fort Worth train depot.

Waiting for the train to come in.

Our hotel and our sightseeing bus.

Some of the scenery we enjoyed while we were in Colorado.

Mr. Parnell after just two days of being our sponsor.

SENIOR PLAY - "ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

"If Mortimer sees some of those shows he has to see, at least he sees them sitting next to a minister's daughter."

"Perhaps you had better go to bed."

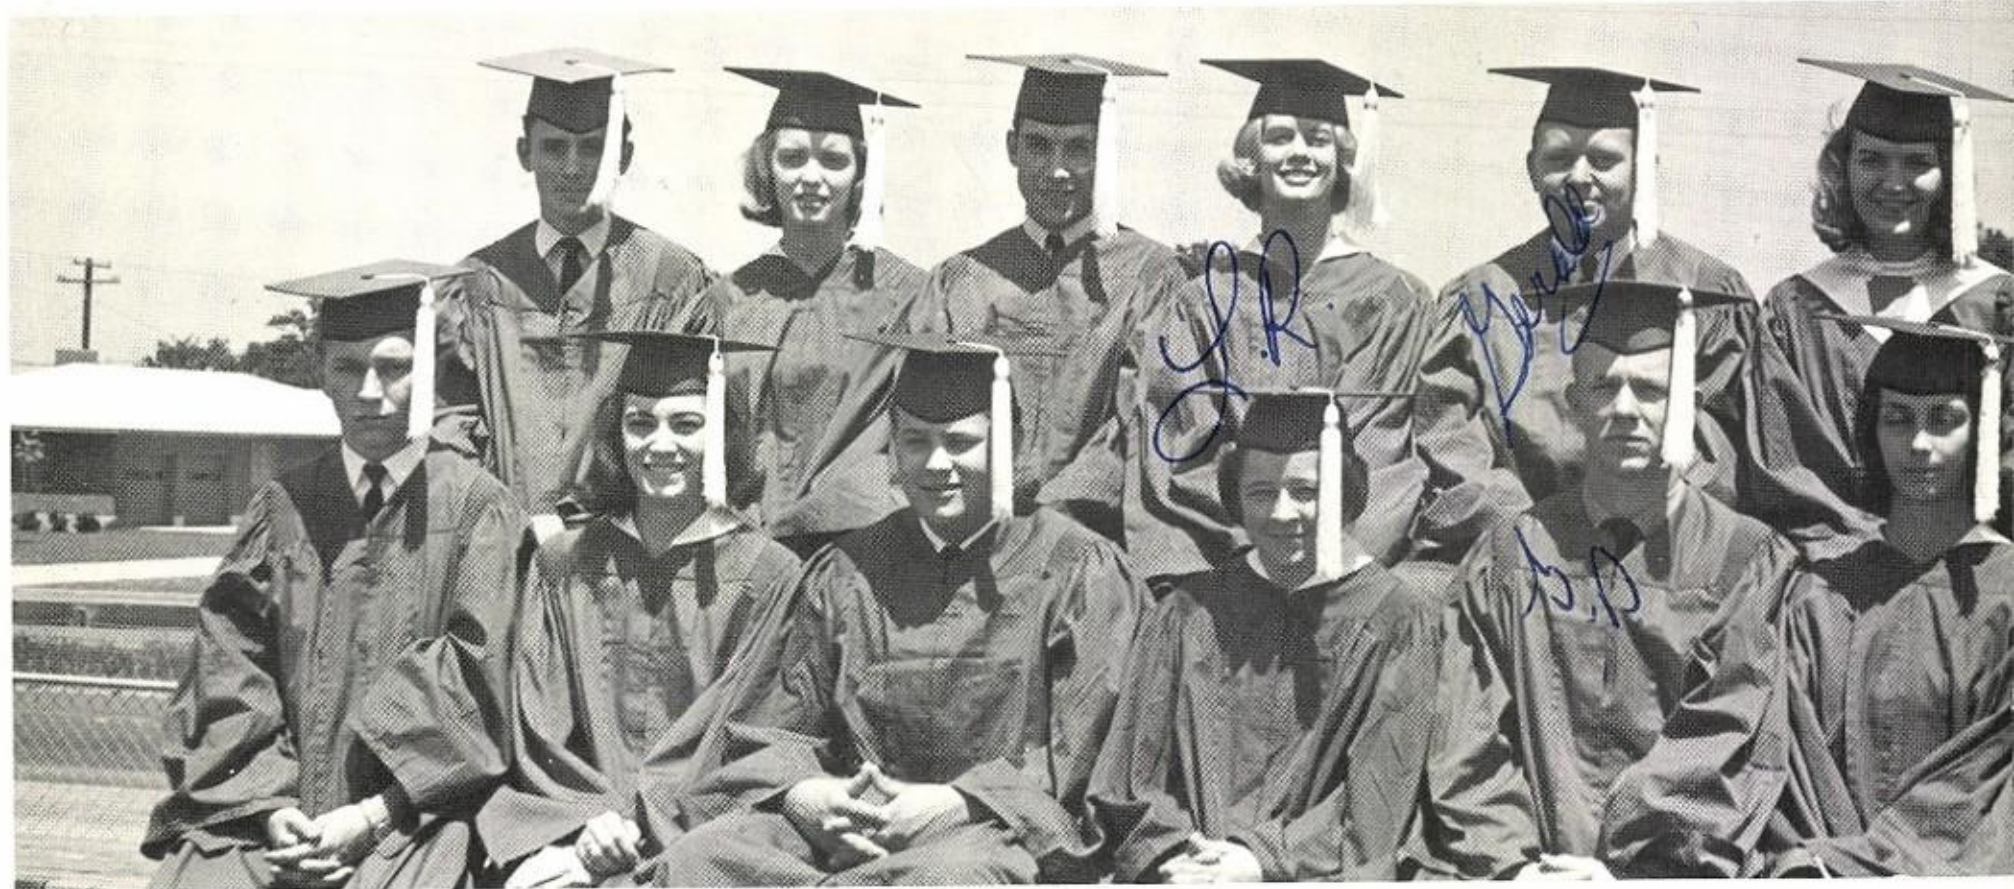

"Personally I have always enjoyed my talks with Cardinal Gibbins. Or have I met him?"

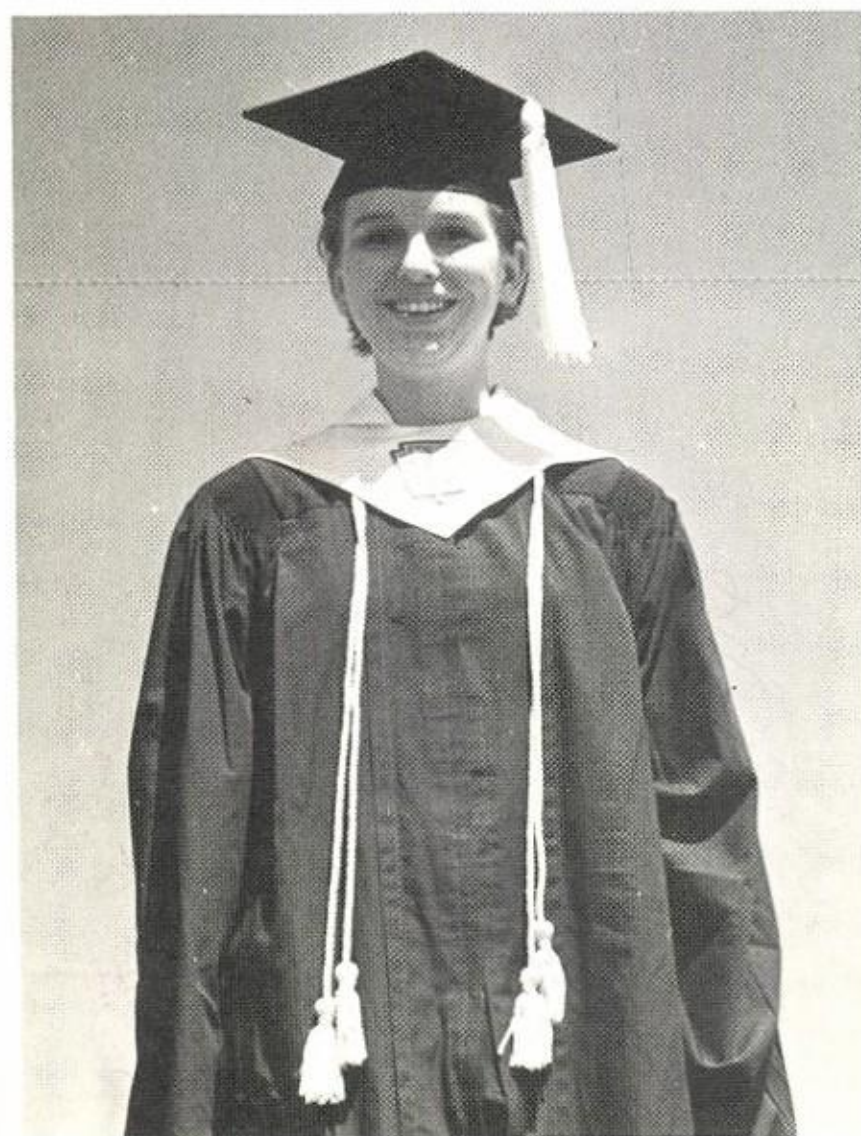

"Here they come again!!!"

HARD...

WORKING...

SENIORS!!!

When the band hall burned this year it gave the seniors a chance to earn some much needed money for the senior trip. The seniors took on the job of clearing away the debris. Here are some pictures made during the clean-up. (Even though you can't see any girls, they helped too.)

See the big, brave senior boys...

Sportsmen win trophies soldiers earn medals, and statesmen achieve fame but students receive only a little recognition and a great deal

REMEMBER...

...those 30 minute Activity Periods.

...the cheerleaders' yells and the majorettes' twirling.

...building the bonfire for the Alvarado-Joshua game.

...that night of October 29.

...that feeling you got watching the bonfire.

...the library where you did all your studying.

REMEMBER...

...Bert and his artistic painting.

...those few moments when you could just sit and enjoy school.

... the enthusiasm of the Junior High cheerleaders.

...Dwin's car and how many people could get in it all at once.

...those posed pictures.

...those confusing but winning basketball games.

Going.....

Going.....

Gone!

The frantic endeavor of the Cleburne and Burleson fire departments.

Two volunteer firemen in an attempt to put out the fire.

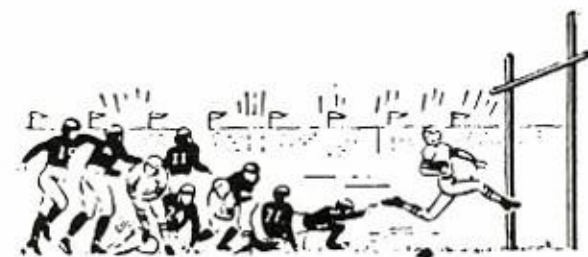

"Say, this may sound funny; but haven't I bumped into you somewhere else?"

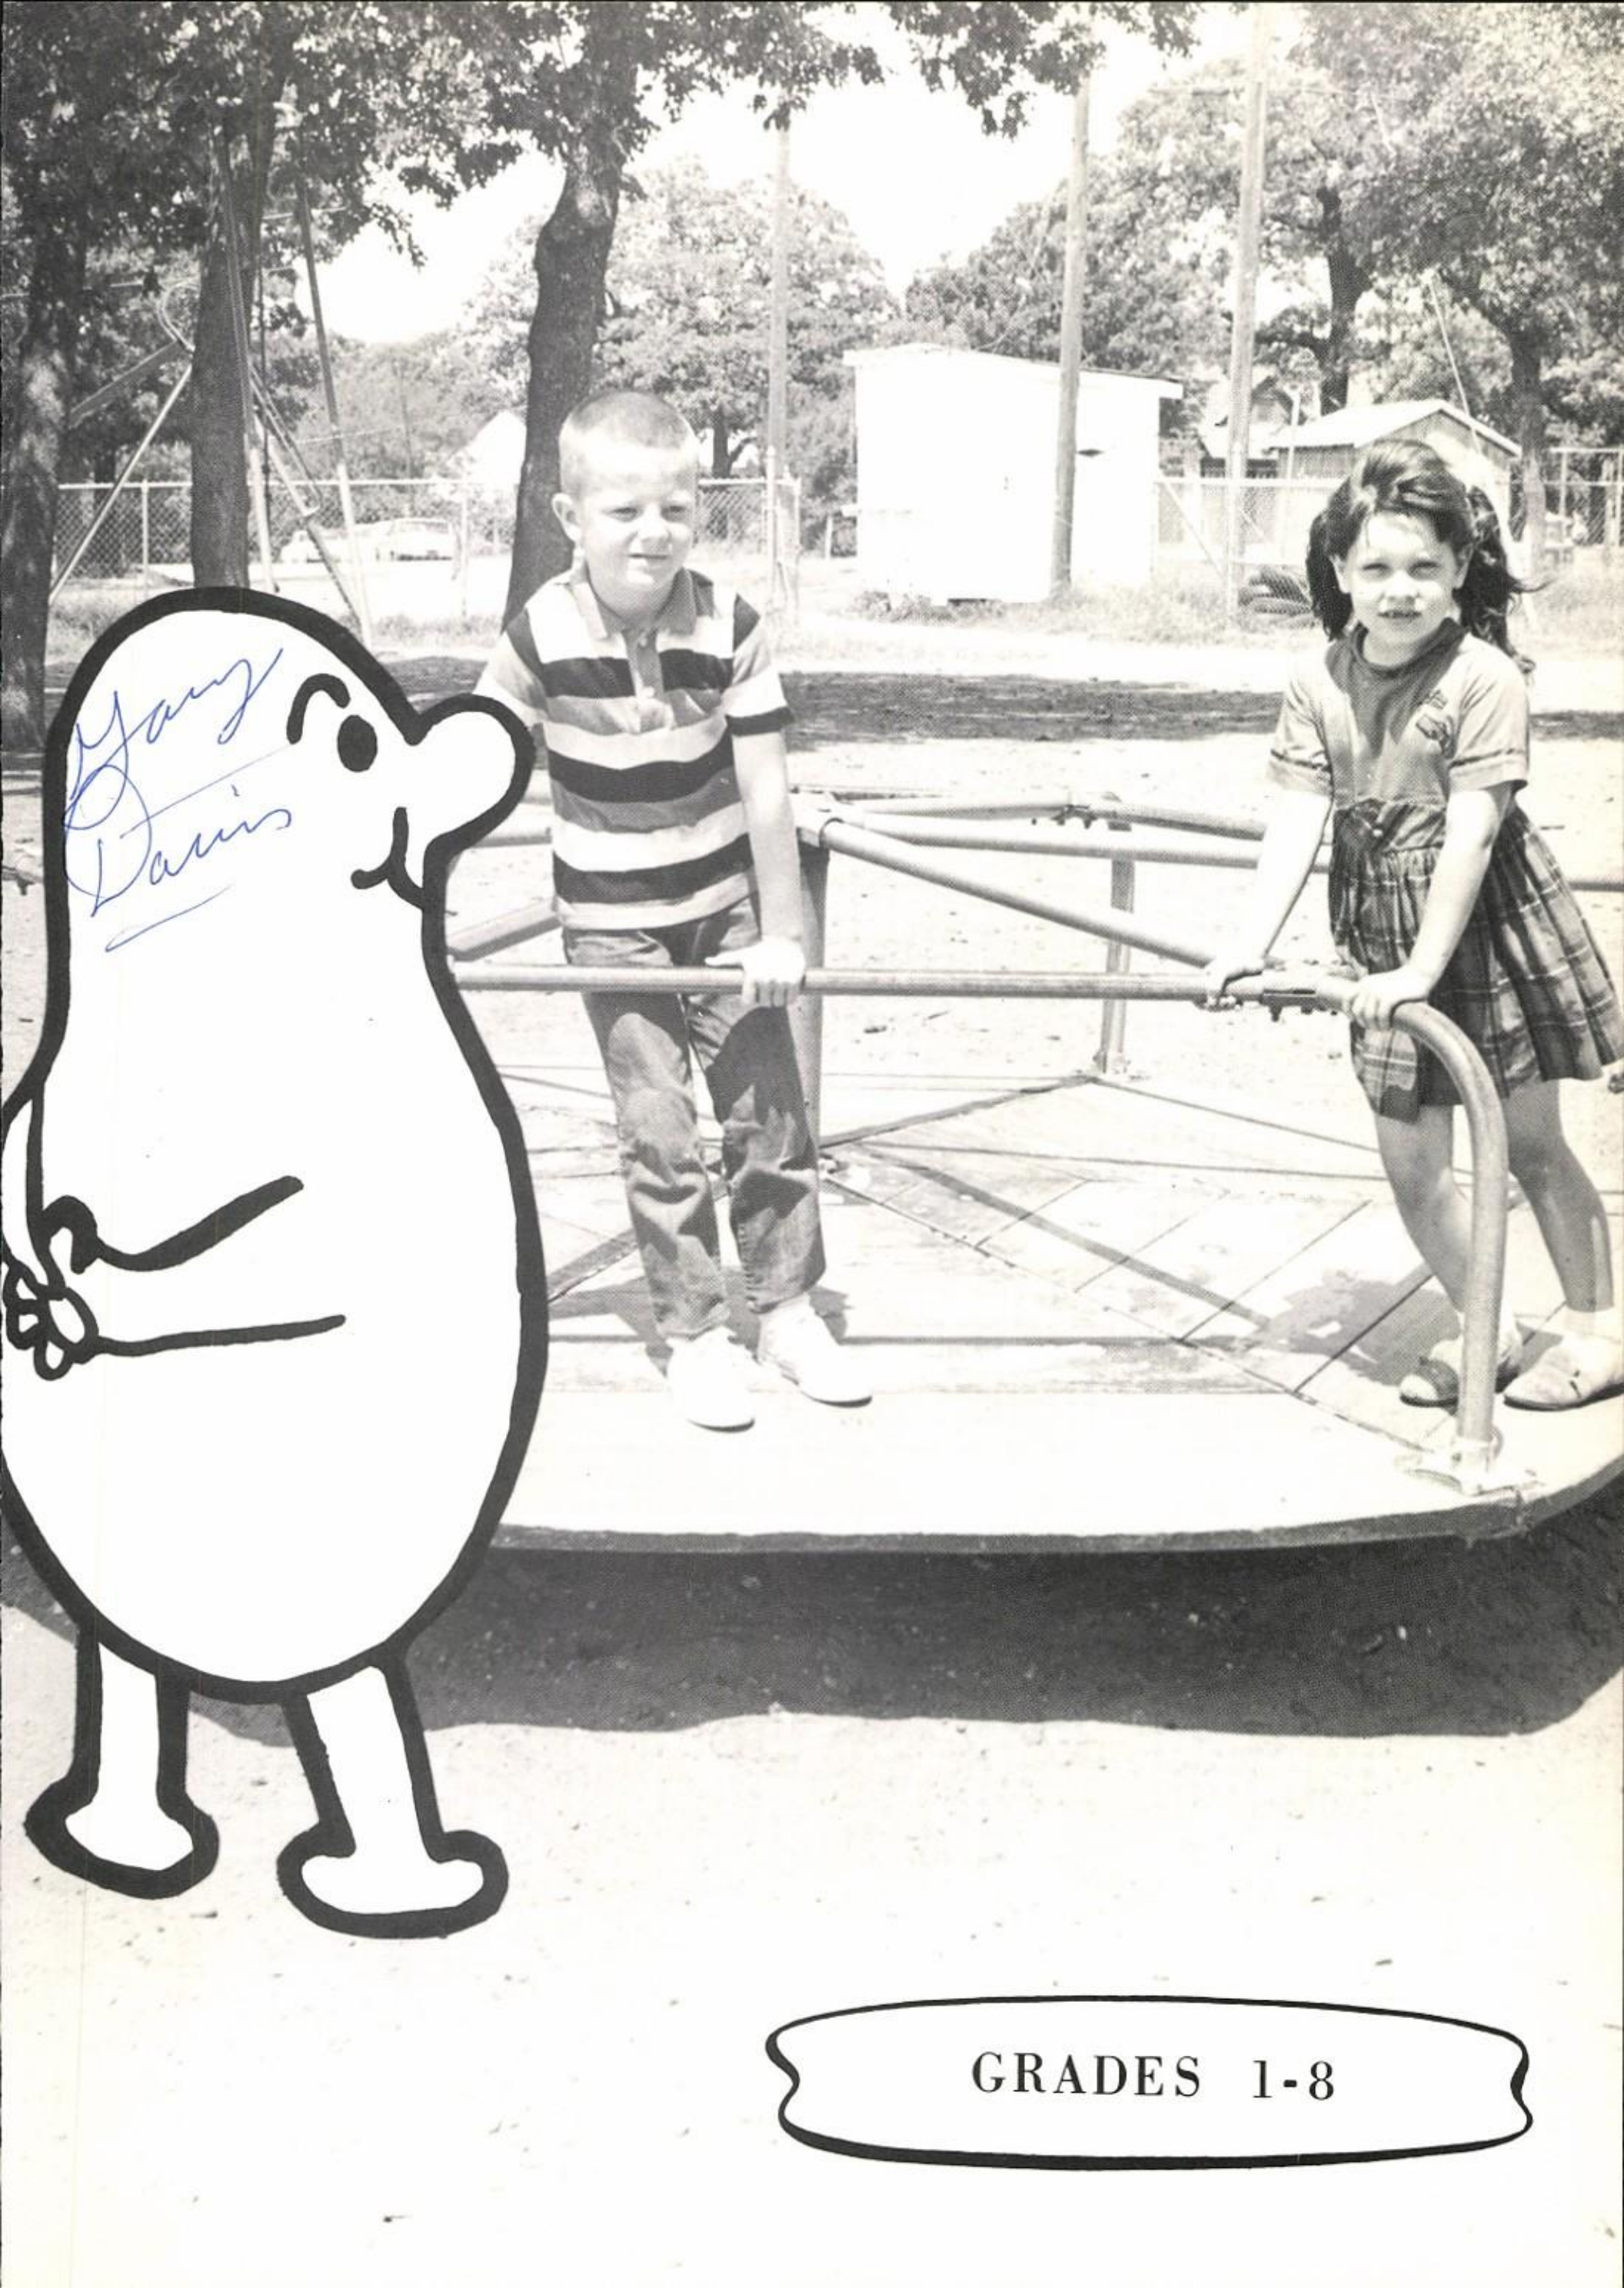

"For Pete's sake, we're only playing football, not..."
